

SZIGET FESTIVAL CAMPING POLICY

Dear camper,

If you use the camping areas of SZIGET FESTIVAL organised by SZIGET CULTURAL MANAGEMENT LTD., you have to comply with the mandatory rules of conduct of the camping areas.

1. Visitors are admitted to the camping area at the times and according to the conditions specified on their ticket. In addition to the camping ticket, you must also have a festival day ticket or pass valid for the given day.
2. One visitor is only entitled to occupy an area of maximum 6 square meters. Pitching up your own tent is only permitted in Basic Camping and Siesta Camping.
3. If SZIGET staff ask the visitors to demolish their shading tents or beer tents, they are obliged to obey immediately.
4. SZIGET staff ask visitors to set up their tents exclusively at the designated areas, making sure, that they leave the escape routes, fire lanes and restricted areas free. If a visitor fails to comply with this safety requirement, SZIGET staff or the employees of the national directorate general for disaster management is entitled to ask the visitor to move his or her tent to a designated area. It is forbidden to camp at the restricted areas.
5. According to the main rule, power consumption is prohibited. Breaking the rule once written in this section will result in immediate expulsion from the camping area. Exceptions to this are the connectors installed in pre-installed accommodation and the connection of electricity to the caravans provided for the designated caravan plots in the camping area.
6. For safety reasons it is prohibited to use your own air conditioner, electric stove, electric kettle, gas stove or fridge at the camping areas. Exceptions to this rule may be made for rented equipment belonging to the pre-installed accommodations.
7. Entry in a vehicle to the camping areas is forbidden with the exception of a vehicle carrying out cleaning or maintenance, a vehicle that has the vehicle entry permit of the camp leader and the staff's motorbikes. Caravan may only park in the caravan camping area with valid Pitch for your caravan voucher, although the vehicle towing it must leave the camping area immediately after parking the caravan.
8. SZIGET draws attention to the fact that it is strictly forbidden to damage trees (for example breaking branches, nailing anything to the trees, cutting out trees).
9. Please do not disturb the peace of others by listening to loud music between 10pm and 10am.
10. SZIGET may not be held responsible in connection with the visitor's objects that can be found at the camping areas, therefore SZIGET is not responsible for any damage or loss of the visitor's property caused by another visitor, or anyone else.
11. Any visitor who causes damage to the facilities, equipment or infrastructure located at the camping areas shall be liable for such damage.
12. The visitor is obliged to notify the camping reception of any failure of the equipment, about tort, and also about violation of this camping policy.

13. For all questions not regulated herein SZIGET Festival's Visitor Policy and SZIGET FESTIVAL's General Terms and Conditions shall apply. Please watch out for one another and for yourselves! We hope you enjoy the event!
